

41@100

A CELEBRATION OF GEORGE H.W. BUSH

Community Day Celebration on Thursday, June 13, 2024

We invite the community to help us celebrate what would have been the 100th birthday of President George H.W. Bush!

The schedule of events for the day is:

- 8 a.m. The Bush Library & Museum opens with free admission until 7:30 p.m.
View the new Spirit of the Place exhibit on display in the Ansary Gallery of American History
- Marine One/4141 Locomotive Pavilion will be open for the first time
- Bush Grandchildren Parachute Jump Viewing on the Bush Presidential Center grounds
- 11 a.m. 41@100 Birthday Celebration in the Bush Library & Museum Rotunda, featuring cake, Blue Bell Ice Cream, Pepsi products, a Kids Zone, and pictures with Sully. The Kids Zone will include face painting, professional caricatures, and balloon animals. This event will conclude at 1 p.m.
- 2 p.m. "Looking Forward: Carrying the Mantle of Service Into the Future," A moderated conversation with President Bush's Grandchildren in the Annenberg Presidential Conference Center
- 7:30 p.m. Birthday Concert featuring Former Students, Texas Singer-Songwriters Robert Earl Keen '78 & Lyle Lovett '79
- Museum closes
- 8 p.m. Bush Library and Museum and the Marine One/4141 Locomotive Pavilion close
- 9 p.m. Concert concludes

For more information about how you can participate in 41@100: A Celebration of George H.W. Bush, please visit georgeandbarbarabush.org/41at100