

Master Storyteller and Author Oba William King: Celebrating Juneteenth

Celebrating Juneteenth Freedom's Legacy: Honoring Our Ancestors. This year we will honor the legacies of President George H.W. Bush and First Lady Barbara Bush as well as reflecting on the values we have received from all of our ancestors.

The presenter this year will be Oba William King. Oba is recognized as one of the most exciting storytellers. He ignites audiences with his ability to capture their imagination. Storyteller Oba King will engage with playful rhythm and rhyme.

Mr. King is returning for an unprecedented third visit to the George H.W. Bush Presidential Library. He will weave words of wisdom through interactive story, drumming, and song. Oba is known as The Poetic Storyteller and masterfully combines his professional theatrical training with a poetic style that is all his own. Oba will masterfully share the traditional art form as if it were a sacred gift.
